Team Operations and Management

Once you've created teams on iSportArena.com, you can manage and interact with them through various pages. Let's explore each of these pages and their functionalities:

You can access these pages from the following options:

1. My Teams Page: Use the "My" link in the header menu to access your team summary, which includes information about teams you own, joined, and available to join.
2. Manage Teams Page: Use the "Manage" link under the "Teams" section in the header menu to access the page where you can manage your teams.
3. All Teams Page: Use the "All" link in the header menu to access the page that lists all available teams.

My Teams Page

The "My Teams" page provides an overview of the teams you are associated with. It's divided into three tabs:

1. Owner Tab: This tab displays the list of teams that you have created. You have full control and management over these teams.
2. Joined Tab: In this tab, you can see the list of teams you have joined using your player profiles. You're a member of these teams.
3. Available Tab: This tab shows the teams that are available for you to join. You can choose to join these teams if you're interested.
